CURRICULUM VITEA
NATAŠA GOSPIĆ

I received the BSc and MSc. degree from the Faculty of Electrical Engineering and PhD degree from the Faculty of Transport and Traffic Engineering, University of Belgrade.
Most important job assignment:

- Assistant General Director of Community of Yugoslav PTT (1990- Jun 2000),
- General Manager mobile operator MONET (Jun 2000-March 2002),
- Advisor to General Manager of Telecom Srpske , B&H (March 2002-July 2004),
- Professor on University Belgrade and University of Banja Luka, BiH,

I was engaged by ITU-D to be a lecturer in more then 30 ITU-D workshops for CEE and CIS and other development countries. I was the editor of the ITU-D Handbook "New technologies and new services".

Presently I am vice chairperson of SG 2 ITU-D, Rapportuer for Q 18/2 and chairperson of ITU Working Group on Gender Issues.

The scope of my recent work for telecom operators used to be: strategy and policy for mobile networks and service development, business policy for ISP, and implementation of EBRD loans for ten projects for Telekom Srpske.

I am the author of three books and more then 60 scientific and expert papers.