

Biography:

Emmanuel kakai

A telecommunication Engineer by training, he has been involved in the telecommunication field for the last 15 years. Joined Telkom Kenya in 1990 and currently working as a Business Development Executive in the same Company. His major roles and responsibilities in the company are:

- Corporate sales and marketing of data services.
- Development of Business and Consumer data applications including: leased line services, VSAT, ADSL, and VOIP with a view to increasing market penetration.
- Overall coordination of marketing campaigns for data services.

Previously worked in Research and Development, Transmission and Radio equipment installation and commissioning, maintenance and repair sections within Telkom Kenya.

His major interest is in 3G CDMA and Next Generation Networks (NGN) with emphasis on their application in the African scenario. Has written and presented several papers in various forums which are available in public domain.

Participated as a delegate at the ITU-BDT Regional Seminar for Africa on Fixed Mobile Convergence and guidelines on the smooth transition of existing mobile networks to IMT-2000 for Developing Countries that was held in Nairobi-Kenya.