

Lamia DELEND

Lamia is deputy director of France Telecom group Spectrum Office, in charge of Regulatory prospective and Economic assessment. She also acts as the France Telecom representative in the external fora's relating to spectrum management Policies. She is designated as the France Telecom representative for Agenda Item 7.1 of the World Radiocommunications Conference 2007 (WRC-07) that deals with the report to the ITU-R Director of the Radiocommunication Bureau on "improving the international regulatory framework". Prior to joining France Telecom Spectrum Office, Lamia worked at France Telecom External Relations Direction and prior to that at Global one and at Transpac. She holds a Master in Business Management from IAE (France) and a PHD in Political Science.