

Dr. Margit Brandl
Vice President Telcoms Siemens European Union Affairs Brussels
Siemens AG

Margit Brandl is a lawyer specialised in European telecommunications law. She works for Siemens at their European Union Affairs office in Brussels dealing with governmental affairs in the ICT field.

Margit joined Siemens in 2000 and was dealing with regulatory issues in telecommunication (legal and regulatory questions concerning deregulation and liberalisation). Until 2003 she used to teach law and informatics at the University of Graz. She has published several scientific papers concerning IT- and telecommunications law.

Prior to Siemens, Margit Brandl served as jurist for the Austrian Telecommunications Regulator.

Margit Brandl is a 1998 graduate of Karl-Franzens-University Graz with a PH.D. degree in Law (2001).